PRUNING KNIFE USED BY MAUI SUPERVISORS

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

WAILUKU, Maui, March 20.—Maui county supervisors have had a busy week. The most important matter that was taken up was the possibility of curtailing of county expenses. Inasmuch as the income for the present year was about half that of the year previous, and in view of the further fact that the Maui Chamber of Commerce had vitally interested itself in the work of the board, the fathers thought that immediate action was necessary. It was one of the most difficult situations that the county has found itself in for many a year. The salaries of all officers not elected by popular vote were cut last week. Salaries in some instances were done away with entirely. The position of county attorney's clerk, which has been filled by Attorney W. F. Crockett, was abolished. As this was the third position in this department, the board felt that this must be sacrificed, because of shortage of funds. Two of the county clerk's assistants were also dropped from the pay roll. Cuts have been made extensively in all other departments of the county work, and much money will thereby be saved.

The cut recently made in the upkeep of the Kula sanitarium has aroused the Maui public. Subscriptions from private individuals have been made during the past week through the eager and tireless efforts of Miss Alexia von Tempesky. A large monthly income will thus be given to the Kula sanitarium by the private citizens of this county. At the meeting of the board of supervisors last week, H. A. Baldwin and W. P. Fogg, members of the Kula sanitarium managing committee, appeared and entered a strong protest upon the cut made for the institution, saying that the $500 a month should be immediately restored. The outcome of the matter will be watched with keen interest by all who have the sanitarium at heart. Offerings in various public ways are being made for the purpose of keeping the institution supplied with greatly needed funds.

The county has done a very popular thing this week in carrying out the "Brighten Up" spirit inaugurated by the Kahului store. Between the dates of the 15th and 21st the county carts have, free of charge, carried away the dumps all rubbish that people would place so the carts could get at it easily. The result is that the town was never as clean as it is at the end of this week. Quantities of tins, banana stumps, bottles, pieces of old iron as well as the usual yard collections have been piled up on the sand hills dumping ground.

The matter of plebiscite was voted on by the county fathers and County Attorney Case was authorized to proceed to draw up the necessary proclamation and other documents relating to the popular vote on the Maui improvements desired.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PLAY PROVES A LARGE SUCCESS

The junior and senior play, "All of a Sudden Peggy," which was given by those classes of Oahu college Saturday night in Charles R. Bishop hall was one of the best performances given by the students of the school in a long time. Those taking the principal parts handled them well and the audience was delighted with the production.

Miss Eloise Wichman, as Peggy, scored the hit of the evening by the clever interpretation of her part.
She did exceptionally well, her "all of a suddenness" being worked out in a remarkable manner. Miss Louise Churchill as Lady Crackenhorpe and Miss Thelma Murphy as Mrs. O'Mara were given much favorable comment while Miss Dorothy Hoogs as Millennium Keppel was rated as one of the best performers.

The principal man's part, Honorable Jimmy Keppel, was handled in good order by Clossum Emory; Bernard Damon as Sir Anthony Cracken-horpe afforded the audience a lot of laughter and Malcolm Tuttle as Archibald was also good.

Ernest Heene's orchestra played before the curtain and between the acts. With Albert Smith at the piano and eight stringed instruments in the hands of the most talented musicians of the school that part of the performance proved one of the biggest features.

The success of the play was largely due to Mrs. Isaac Cox, under whose direction it was given, and she deserves unlimited praise for the way it was carried through.
